

JUROR

Thomas J. Norulak

Mr. Norulak received his BFA in Painting from Carnegie Mellon University in 1971 but his real passion in art has been print-making. After 5 years in Philadelphia, he moved back to Pittsburgh and after spending a few years establishing his commercial screen printing business, he began making and exhibiting his own etchings and serigraphs. His etchings are landscapes drawn from his experiences along the hiking trails of Western Pennsylvania. Mr. Norulak is attracted to images which portray the effects of time on both natural and man made objects and include disintegrating buildings, washed up tires on the shores of Lake Erie, and rusting machinery left behind in the woods. One of his recent shows was titled "Detritus" and featured 20 of these images depicting such effects as those mentioned. His serigraphs, on the other hand, are often brilliantly colored landscapes of scenes along the many hiking trails he has trod upon over the years. He is currently working on a series of serigraphs that are based on some of his older etchings.
